

Hillel is more than just your Friday night dinner...

Here are a few more things that Hillel offers you.

Trips to Israel

The Taglit-birthright israel: Hillel program offers FREE trips to Israel during winter and/or summer break! We can also help you find or fund any other trips to Israel, including the Mission trips through Hillel: the Foundation for Jewish Campus Life. Contact andy@stlouishillel.org

Conference Funding

Funding for any Hillel sponsored or other Jewish Leadership conference is available through Hillel. Get details & download the funding application from our website. Get your approval from Hillel Office Manager, Denise Koester. www.stlouishillel.org

Worldwide Fellowships & Studying Abroad Programs

Hillel posts opportunities each week in our E-newsletter and on the "Jewish Junk Mail Board" in the Hillel building.

Jobs & Internships

Hillel posts job & internship openings in our weekly E-newsletter. The opportunities include Jewish agencies, congregations, camps & schools in St. Louis and all over the nation.

Kosher Food

Hillel provides a home for the Kosher kitchens that supply the Wash U Kosher meal plan. For more info about the Kosher meal plan visit www.diningservices.wustl.edu.

St. Louis Jewish Community

Visit www.jewishinstlouis.org, sponsored by the St. Louis Jewish Federation for the most comprehensive overview of everything Jewish in the St. Louis area.

Alternative Break Trips

Hillel in conjunction with other Jewish agencies offers the opportunity to participate in a social justice trip during winter or spring break. Contact jessica@stlouishillel.org

Takkana Social Justice Fellowship

Hillel in conjunction with AJWS provides a social justice opportunity for students including internships at local companies, retreats, and a service trip. Contact jessica@stlouishillel.org

Jewish Learning

Hillel offers many Jewish learning classes by our Rabbi Avi, students and other St. Louis groups. Rabbi Avi's standing challenge is to gather a few friends, pick a topic and find a time. He'll custom create a class for you! Contact avi@stlouishillel.org

A place to study & hang out

The Hillel building is a great quiet place for study, equipped with wireless internet and a large Jewish library. The building also has comfy couches, cable TV, etc. for just relaxing and hanging out with friends. Visit us anytime during office hours. M-Th 9am-5pm, Fri 9am-3pm

Rabbinic Counsel

Rabbi Avi is available for you anytime for any needs you may have and will keep everything completely confidential. Contact avi@stlouishillel.org

Your Jewish Life after College

Hillel has contacts all over the nation as well as in Israel. We can help you find a place in your Jewish community after college, wherever that may be.

Standing Coffee Date

Just need a friend to talk to or hang out with?

Contact our JCSC Fellow andy@stlouishillel.org

