Email: eli@stlouishillel.org

Phone: (314) 935-9045

Eli is originally from Verona, Wisconsin, just outside of Madison. He's spent the last four years in St. Louis, and is a proud Wash U alum (December 2010), with a degree in Philosophy-Neuroscience-Psychology. After graduating, Eli still hadn't had enough of the Wash U Jewish community, so he stuck around to work at St. Louis Hillel. As Hillel's Engagement Associate, Eli focuses on freshman engagement, senior and graduate student programming and Taglit-Birthright Israel alumni follow-up. Outside of Hillel, Eli enjoys exploring St. Louis and checking out the live music scene. He also works with Next Dor St. Louis, a start-up non-profit building a vibrant community among young Jewish adults in the St. Louis community.
